Reliance Standard Announces Interest Rate Increases Across Annuity Portfolio

PHILADELPHIA, PA, May 13, 2026 — Reliance Standard Life Insurance Company, a member of the Tokio Marine Group, announced interest rate increases across its fixed and fixed index annuity product lines. The new rates took effect May 5, 2026, for fixed annuity products and take effect May 16, 2026, for fixed index annuity products.

The increases apply to base interest rates on fixed products and to select participation rates on index interest crediting strategies, reflecting the company’s ongoing commitment to delivering value within a disciplined pricing approach.

“Principal protection remains the foundation of every product we offer, and our pricing decisions reflect that commitment,” said David Whitehead, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Reliance Standard. “These adjustments allow us to continue delivering meaningful value to financial professionals and their clients while maintaining the financial discipline that defines our retirement solutions.”

Reliance Standard’s annuity portfolio is designed to help clients build retirement savings with principal protection, predictable growth, and the backing of a carrier with more than 115 years of history. The company holds an A++ (Superior) rating from AM Best, an A+ from S&P Global, and an A1 from Moody’s.
